SB Civil Rev. Petition No.12/2002

Date of Order: 26th April, 2006

PRESENT

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE BHAGWATI PRASAD

Mr.Bheem Arora for the petitioner/s
Mr.I.R.Choudhary] for the respondent/s.
Mr.V.S.Choudhary]

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The question raised in this revision petition is that the trial court has wrongly determined that it has jurisdiction to decide the suit in question. Admittedly, the suit relates to a land which is an agricultural land. In relation to agricultural lands jurisdiction squarely vests in the revenue courts and not in the civil courts. In that view of the matter the order deserves to be set aside. The trial court will return the suit to be presented before the appropriate court. The revision is accordingly disposed off.
